OF PETS AND PEOPLE

“What is it about our pets, that makes us love them so much? Most are soft and cuddly, most are loyal, most guard you and warn you when there is a threat, most hold you in high esteem, most trust you implicitly—but all love. Love above all, is the bond that grows between the pet and its master.

Even cruel masters, who do not deserve love, still receive love from their pets; and when a pet is abused, it becomes woefully sad...but it does not stop loving its master. The master will be held responsible for this abuse, but The Lord comforts the helpless spirit of the pet. God loves his creations very much, and records every act of evil and violence against one of His creatures, whether animal or human; and the abuser will pay many times over for the damage done.

Animals are sacrifices that humans may live; but they have spirits and emotions, and intellect far beyond what most humans realize. Many animals know their masters far better than the master knows them. In spite of human flaws, the pet loves the master even yet.

Animals came before man on the Earth, many ages before man; and The Lord considered them His companions. For many years, they communed with God and other creatures in peace; this...until Satan became involved. God made countless forms and types of animals, and gave them food and environments that they could live a fruitful life. God loved them.

Later came humans, and God also gave Adam many animals as companions; and it was good. They all lived together in peace and love, and God was pleased. Of course, Satan became involved again through Eve; and the Curse ensued.

Since then, man and animals have suffered death, and many other curses; yet that special relationship has continued on, because of the great sense of love that God created within pets; and if man is in the Will of God, He created a special pet for all, given the appropriateness of time.

God judges man based on His treatment of those more vulnerable, such as pets; because as a man treats an animal, so he lives within the same boundaries with God; and in fact, establishes the cadence by which the love flows between the two. This is a heart issue, and God always looks at the heart to determine truth and righteousness.

The love you show for your pets is an inward vision of who you are. As is the case with God, your pets also deserve your highest concern and care, allegiance and love. This is a way for a person to gain fruit for the hereafter, and this is very important in the eternal realms.

You may see your pets again in the heavenly realms if you live well, and obey the laws of God...for most animals are allowed entrance to the marginal realms of Heaven, and like angels, keep the memories of your love and actions with them—and by this you are judged.

Therefore, love your pets, and treat them as you would want to be treated...for they are spirits close to God.”

The Lord hath made all things for Himself: Proverbs 16:4

God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Acts 17:24

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 2 Corinthians 10

And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living. Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them. Genesis 3:17-21

(Sin and its effects changed life for the animals, also. God made coats of skin from animals as Adam was now naked; and previous to the sin of Adam, or the ‘Fall of Man’, this sacrifice for man was not necessary. Because of sin, man now uses animals for food and other items, and they are sacrifices that we may live. Animals did not sin—man sinned.)
