

ALIENS AMONG YOU

Question: Please explain to me about aliens, what they are, how advanced they are, and where they come from.

“You are now entering an area that man has been separated from, for many years.

You see reports of unidentified flying devices, and testimonies of encounters with unknown beings. This you can believe, because many encounters and sightings are indeed real; and humans have had contact with these beings. They are from another dimension that your realm is not familiar with, and they can cross realms with their advanced crafts that have that capability built into them.

Yes, they are far advanced when compared to your culture, and they live differently than humans do. I allow their comings and goings, and they do not come to take advantage of humans or the Earth. They monitor.

They monitor people, the atmosphere, the Earth, the water, and on an occasion—animals. This data is compiled and kept in central locations, and compared with other cultures with similar origins. When serious distortions are perceived, and humans need knowledge to repair an environmental threat or some imperfect natural irregularity, they will covertly inject the solution into the mind of one on Earth, who can be instrumental in devising a solution.

They are not your enemies, and mean you no harm; they just monitor and report. You may consider them a form of caretaker.

They do not have a soul and a spiritual makeup such as humans do, for they were created in a more static environment, and they are all content with their state of being. They have no hope of Heaven or glorified bodies, for they have been blessed adequately with what they have now. They have no capacity to sin, such as humans do, and they are monitored by the angelic beings.

They have existed for much longer than humans, and they have a home realm where they all exist and socialize. This realm is not accessible by humans, simply because the elemental makeup of the human existence has no capacity to go there; if taken, your elements would die. They are a vastly different type of life as compared to humans, but similar in a few ways; such as the body functionality—it requires nourishment and warmth, and cannot survive in very harsh climates. They also need oxygen to breath in order to sustain their metabolism. Their mental functions are far broader than humans, and they have a larger capacity for storing data; so after these many centuries

(yes, they live in a time realm as well), they have learned and retained many secrets of travel and material existence, that humans will never attain.

They respect the privacy and integrity of Earth and its inhabitants, because God mandates it. They know the history of the Earth, and they were actively monitoring even the dinosaurs, in the previous age.

They do have a life span, but it is much longer than humans; and when they die physically, their essence is preserved and passed on to a new being...thereby allowing the intimate form of each of them to survive for centuries. This knowledge is respected and utilized from generation to generation, and they do not abuse it.

When humans advance to the Heavenly Realm, at least the ones found worthy, they will have enhanced bodies and minds and spirits; and at that time, and on forever they will explore and learn in the realms that they are assigned to; and many will be able to encounter and learn from these beings that you call aliens.

They have their place in creation just as you do, and humans are favored above all...because they have the opportunity to live with God, and have glorified existences forever.

I bless this knowledge to you."

Question: I have heard reports of abusive testing and kidnapping of humans, are these true?

"People tend to sensationalize things, and any experimentation that has been done by them has been necessary."

Question: Have there been animal mutilations?

"They were soft and delicate intrusions."

Question: Why do you need their service since you know all?

"All have a service to the Lord, just like you do. You need this for your spiritual development and they need their service to glorify God and work for the betterment of the Creation."

I tested the Spirits since this information is so incredible: Is Jesus the Son of God and did He die and rise on the third day, and is He now seated at the right hand of God?

"He is right here with Me now."

Question: I have heard some frightening stories about them, and that they are demonic.

“These are all fabrications.”

Question: Will we see many more of them during the Calamity?

“Not interacting any more than they have. They will know of My Plan to end your time.”

Comment: I have seen some in the sky here.

“They frequent your area, and many others. Many times I allow someone such as you to see evidence of them, to enhance your spiritual experience.”

Question: Is there one alive and held in area 51?

“Your government hides things from you in an elite power vacuum. They consider this critical intelligence, but only for the few that they consider ‘anointed’.

Question: Is there one alive from the Roswell incident?

“These beings died when they struck the Earth.”

Question: Does the illuminati have a connection with these?

“The illuminati is a form of evil, and they covertly reign by fear, and carefully calculate media releases to the general public. Do not trust anything you hear from them any more than you would trust Satan.”

Question: What is their purpose?

“They were created to serve through data collection and analyzation.”

Question: Do they love, as humans do?

“Since they have no capacity to sin, they have a relationship that honors Me, as their Creator; and they glorify Me by their service. They do not love in the same capacity as humans. They are more stoic.”

Question: Will their culture have an end, like humans?

“I have no plans to end their existence, they serve Me well.”

Question: Will I see their realm when I am in Heaven if I am more holy?

“It is a very complex realm, and you would need to be lifted up in order to understand and experience it. Holiness on Earth is a factor, in that you may gain access to their realm if God ordains this as a blessing for your life well lived.”

Question: Do they have families?

“They procreate, but in a different manner than humans. The partners work together for many terms, in creating their offspring from the elements that God gives them. They take great pride in their offspring.”

Question: How many dimensions are there?

“There are almost unlimited realms. Be very good and you will see many of them.

Meditate on this. I go now”

YHWH

Later, I said that I sure would like to know how many dimensions there are, some speculate that there are ten total.

“Count your fingers.”
