

ABOUT PERFECTION

“When it comes to the Word of God, you know that He speaks Truth; carefully documented, historically correct, more proof added every year by research, miracles even today, physical evidence everywhere you can look, and your innate feeling that makes you spiritual and quest for God.

Yes, God is the Master Creator of all...out of time, high above all, completely self-sufficient; yet He loves you. Even in the midst of your filth and sin, He loves you and wants your company forever with Him. This is the ideal, and every human has this capacity, but not many have the will.

God is Perfect, and therefore cannot have anything impure in His Presence...for by this compromise, He would not be Who He is. So you, if you wish to be in God’s Presence must be pure of heart, mind, soul, spirit, and body. This requires that you use all the human facilities that God gave you, to rise to this state. It requires taking every thought, notion, and act, captive; and conditioning all of them to be in the Will of God, and using them to the Glory of God. This is perfection, and this is what you shall be if you are in the Kingdom of God.

You start by accepting Jesus The Christ as your personal Savior; then you quench the fire of holy curiosity by studying all of God’s Word that you can acquire. As you learn, you also live in accordance with these teachings of the Old and New Covenants—all of them.

You do not look for an easy way of salvation, you do not look for excuses that may come as you attempt to find loop-holes in the Gospel, to lighten the requirements of God. You, if anything, interpret Scripture more literally, and stringently than you would in a balanced assessment. Do this, and you will not fall short of the requirements of God—for a place in His Kingdom, forever.

God created you with the ability to attain this, and He expects that you will see the wisdom in giving of yourself for your short life on Earth, in exchange for a glorious forever. ‘Such a deal’...as the Jewish have said, yet most do not take the deal and will have much to pay for their short-sightedness.

Perfection is a word that is used very loosely now in this modern culture, and guess who is behind this craze....Satan, of course. He always takes truth and makes a mockery of it, so that humans think that they are sufficient when in fact they are hopelessly caught in Satan’s trap.

Study spiritual perfection, and live it the very best that you can; for in eternity, you will look back and not regret one second in time that you spent in pursuit of perfection.

Glorify your Father with your obedience, and He will lift you up.”
