

THE LOST CHILD

“When I put a soul and spirit in a body, it is forever. When that body dies, the soul and spirit come back to Me; and the necessary entries are made in the Book of Life regarding the child, the mother, the father, and anyone else who had a part in the killing.

This is a grievous sin and must be repented, forgiven, and expiated for all involved to enter the Heavenly realms. If any of these sufferings are not completed, the responsible parties will either spend eternity in Hell, or deep in Purgatory until the price is paid...such that the soul of the guilty person may have the opportunity to enter the marginal heavenly realms.

This is a very serious sin against not only the child but against God, The One Who carefully and lovingly crafted this person to fit into His carefully constructed Plan. So you can see that the killing of a child will affect many other lives because that child never lived, and had its influence on all the other persons who would have known the person. For those people who would have gone on to be great apostles of God, the sin is magnified. Every sin is like a pebble dropped in the water—the ripples go on far after the pebble falls.

And what does the destroyed child lose by not having the opportunity to live and serve God? The answer is—the same that you would lose if you had no time on Earth to gain heavenly rewards: your own home in Heaven, a significantly glorified body that allows access to many of the heavenly realms, and all the learning opportunities that one has while on Earth.

A terminated life in the womb still attains Heaven but must learn and grow, starting from the basic in the lower realms of Heaven; and as eternity flows, that spirit will have the opportunity to grow by the spirit, and in a molecular way as well, in order to gain access to the higher and more complex realms that virtuous, saved spirits have access to.

This process is not an easy one, nor does it happen quickly; so for the ones that took this opportunity from this child, the price will be commensurate with the damage, unless the three criteria are met for complete exoneration.

Bear in mind that those who are guilty and do not have relatively long lives, may not have sufficient time to fully expiate on Earth, so this process must continue in Purgatory. Mercy is indeed upon those who can fully expiate on Earth. While expiation on Earth is painful, the same in Purgatory is magnified both in intensity and duration.

Thus you must abstain from even the appearance of evil, for once the sinful act is committed, the payment resonates for a very long time.

The key to a successful life and the hope of Heaven is righteousness, holiness, and purity.

Be thus.”

But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. Ecclesiastes 11:13

Therefore, all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets. Matthew 7: 12

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, 2 Timothy 3: 1-3
