

BE TAKEN IN LOVE

“When the time comes for you to be taken, will you be ready? Remember there will only be one announcement, there will not be a second chance.

What does wisdom tell you then? Always be ready. Be forgiven and forgive, speak of God and listen to the Words of God, learn and teach about God, give to others sacrificially and receive graciously, thank and be thankful, love and be loved, live righteously and pray that others receive it as well, be blessed and give blessings, be pure and coax others to be pure as well, be holy and exhort others to be holy, do justly and love justice, serve your God and others, and work for the salvation of all men.

Be diligent in all these, and have a gentle heart for Christ; and you will be ready, no matter when your time of transport is. You may receive mercy and be taken quickly, you may reside in the Calamity for a short while, or all the way through it; you may not be taken until the Time of Tribulation; or you may be caught up in the air with Christ at the end of time; but whenever you go—go in The Spirit, and with a confidence in knowing your final destination.

There is only one way that you can be sure—live moment by moment in the Will of God and follow His Word to the letter. He wrote it all for your learning and for the benefit of your life, so that you could live well and die in the grace and love of God; for in doing so, you will fulfill God’s plan for you, and you will advance to the Heavenly Realms with a glorified body and mind, and have the reverential position of serving God for all eternity, in love.

For those of you who cannot fathom this, be aware that you choose your best options; and even if you are dislocated from love, or have had love diminished in your life...love is the highest and best state of existence possible for any living creation, from the lowest to the highest.

So meditate on love, and it will bring you to a state of learning, which will heighten your sense of love; and your spirit will concur. Living love is what you were created to do; so open your heart to the love of God, Christ, The Holy Spirit, the Holy Mother, and all else who surround you...and you will rise up and be blessed.

God is Love, and He wants for you to be the same, and will always hold the goal out to you; and when you comply, He opens new doors of learning and growth that will bring you ever more close to Him. This will be your forever goal, and it will take you forever to accomplish it; but the journey will be glorious and filled with peace, fulfillment, joy, and a satisfaction in knowing that you are doing everything in God’s perfect Plan; and as you do, you are growing in and to perfection yourself.

Accept this challenge today, and begin to draw closer to God, with even little steps; and as you succeed—take larger steps, then strides, then leaps towards God. He will always be there to catch you with open arms.

Live Truth.”
