

YOUR ATTACHMENTS

“Tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick-tock, tick.....”

God created time, and God knows when it will run out.

Where will you be when this instant happens? Your physical component cannot exist without the framework of time, so you will instantly become a spirit being. This Earth will no longer be a viable residence when time ends; nor will any other that has been created, or that will be created. So what will you do; where will you go?

These questions are ones that need to be considered and solved, for you are all finite beings physically; yet your spirit and soul live on. Therefore, you must plan, not only for this limited space in time here on Earth, but much more importantly—your locale after you leave this short testing period.

You ask, how can I plan for something that is completely out of my control; when I am dead, I no longer exist? Nothing could be further from the truth. You can plan, and all the plans that you initiate on Earth will follow you in the hereafter.

After you leave the physical the material attachments end, and you no longer own anything; you are alone, and all that you possess are your memories from your time on Earth, and all your spiritual attachments, if any. Thus, that to which you are attached stays with you and displaces the nothingness of the spirit world.

For those who are ‘In Christ’, or who are ‘indwelled’ by The Holy Spirit, carry these spiritual attachments with them into the next realm after physical death. If one has God’s Spirit as an aggregate part of them, then the realm of their journey’s destination will be a Heavenly Realm.

If one has no spiritual attachments, the destination will not be a Heavenly Realm; but one of learning, knowledge, or correction, if the testing period of physical life kept one in the Mercy of God. These realms are designed to bring one to complete purity, holiness, and righteousness; and those who succeed in growing to these requirements, will have a hope of the Heavenly Realms; but the transition will not be without great pain and penance.

For those who have spiritual attachments to evil or evil spirits, the destination can only be to the evil realms, or what humans call Hell. Of all that have ever lived, these will be the most pitied.

If you are in this last category, wash yourself in the Blood of Jesus The Christ until you are clean and pure; then study to be approved by The Father, and open your heart to the teachings of The Holy Spirit.

Bow before your Creator, and give yourself back to Him completely; and you will begin to form new spiritual attachments for the next stage of your existence.

Do it now, for you know not what your Creator has planned for you tomorrow.

Love and blessings,

Jesus the Christ”
